A Day of Transformation

The Breakthrough Experience

- Does he press your buttons? Does she press your buttons?
- Is that painful event still running your life?
- Would you like to ‘manage’ stress in a simple, scientifically proven way?
- Would you like to be in control of your life instead of being a victim of events?
- Do you carry feelings of guilt?
- Do you resent what you’re doing?
- Are you afraid to step out and do what you love?
- Are you trying to cope with grief?
- Is there just too much pain?
- Would you like to be loved warts and all?
- Would you like to walk away with a potent, self-referencing technique to handle any challenge?
